Welcome Aboard!

There's Something for Everyone

JH Coaches are proud to present their Day Excursion programme which operates from April to December 2017.

We have searched high and low to bring you new and exciting destinations as well as plenty of old favourites. We believe that you will be spoilt for choice and there truly is something for everyone!

The Shipley family merged Classic and Jim Hughes Coaches in October 2014 and moved to new premises in Birtley soon after. As local family businesses, both companies are rightly proud of the success and reputation they have achieved in the North East over the years.

Our friendly, knowledgeable and professional drivers are at the very heart of the success of every JH Coaches tour and look forward to welcoming you on board. Our fleet of modern coaches are fitted with seat belts and have the latest features for your added safety and comfort.

Whether you were a previous customer of Classic Coaches, or someone that has just discovered us, we hope you enjoy browsing through the brochure and hope to see you on board a JH Coaches Day Excursion very soon.
